DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 2. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Miller et al. (U.S. 5,549,626).

Note in figures 1-4, a tubular member (30), wherein a filter (13) removably inserted through the lumen of the tubular member (30), wherein the tubular member (30) is fixed to an outer surface of a cannula (14); and a shaft (17) disposed within the tubular member (30), wherein said filter which includes an expansion frame mounted on the distal end of said shaft (17).

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 08/06/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Note, Miller et al '626 patent has an effective filling date December 23, 1994, the effective filling date of the present application is November 7, 1995, which after the effective filling date of the Miller et al patent application. Therefore, Miller et al patent does qualify as prior art against the claims under 102(e) rejection.

Conclusion

1. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
